

Nevada Democratic Convention Delegates,

My name is Joe Throneberry and I am running for the position of Clark County “At-Large” Executive Board Member for the NV Dems. If you are a Delegate for the State Democratic Convection, I respectfully ask for your vote on the online ballet you will be sent by NV Dems.

I decided to run for this position to drive change within the Nevada State Democratic Party. I have proven my leadership abilities in various Democratic, community, civic, and professional organizations building out processes and procedures as well as developing future leaders. I ask that you review my candidate information filing in which I provided a current resume.

it is my commitment to you that I will listen to your concerns and represent my fellow Nevada Democrats in a fair and transparent manner. I will maintain an open-door policy; I will show respect for all individuals and their respective positions and will make myself available to explain my decisions and votes cast. I will work with our Democratic clubs and organizations and take Clark County’s message to the upward to the State. I will work with our local up and coming Democratic leaders to build talent during my tenure in role.

I am a strong believer in a bottom up approach as it related to politics. The People via participation in Democratic clubs, caucuses, and organizations are the grassroots level in which the “power” should remain. The County and State Party need to work and build up these so that individuals can share their views, learn, and develop and when time to vote, electing Democrats up and down the ticket. I am proud of the efforts of the Red Rock Dems in which I am Vice President in building up new clubs and supporting others when needed. We must all work together to support an inclusive environment in which individuals feel a sense of belonging and that their voice matters.

Respectfully,

Joe Throneberry
