Please state why you are seeking to run for this office:

As a first generation student and American whose spent the last 3 years as an advocate for underserved youth in northern Nevada, I'm seeking to run for this office to be an advocate for the progressive policies needed for substantive change.

Please state any experience that you would like to share that prepares you for this position (please feel free to attach a bio):

A first-generation student and American with every intention of attending law school, Thomas's role as an advocate for youth experiencing homelessness at a local not-for-profit, an elected leader to represent the students within his university's student government, and as a congressional intern to serve the constituents of Nevada's third congressional district, has helped him developed the tools necessary to be an advocate for underserved and marginalized communities. Through extensive coursework taken at the University of Nevada, Reno, and the University of Pennsylvania Law School's Global Institute for Human Rights, Thomas has been able to emphasize the issue of human right in academic and professional settings.
