

Nevada State Democratic Party
2021 Executive Officer Elections

Jacob Allen

Candidate for First Vice Chair

Dear Central Committee Members,

Looking ahead, I can guarantee that I will work each and every day to expand our Democratic base in Nevada as our party's First Vice Chair.

We know how midterms traditionally bode for the party of the incumbent President; as such, we need to be ready to work hard to turn out our base in 2022. Despite the obstacles ahead, I know we will re-elect our statewide and down ballot Democratic leaders while adding newly elected Democrats to their ranks. We will achieve this because with organizers and activists like myself in leadership, we will not be caught off guard.

The key to success in 2022 and beyond will be in our ability to successfully grow and not stagnate. As I invoked Stacey Abrams' Georgia model before, I must do so again here. Abrams said the eminent point in her Abrams Playbook, the one that delivered victory for President Biden and Senators Warnock and Ossoff, is, "continued investment in infrastructure and a broader electorate than the conventional 'base' approach." Abrams also insisted on a ground game in each and every county in Georgia, another aspect of the playbook I hope to bring to Nevada. This proactive approach is what I hope to proliferate here from within Nevada Democratic Party leadership. Turning out the "base" is key, but we must also turnout new voters of all ages and backgrounds in every corner of the Silver State if we are to continue building upon our success of recent years.

In Solidarity,
Jacob
