Nobody, and I mean nobody, has better liberal bonafides than Tick Segerblom.

Segerblom's "Domestic Workers' Bill of Rights" Protects Nevada Workers

Tick Segerblom was instrumental in Bernie Sanders' 2016 and 2020 presidential campaign, serving as Sanders' Nevada campaign co-chair in 2020.

Thank you @tsegerblom. Together we're going to finish the political revolution, sweep Trump out of the White House and create a nation that works for all people.

Tick Segerblom @tsegerblom

the mantra for the 2020 election is authenticity - no one has been more authentic and consistent than bernie sanders!

Tick has pushed for social justice, equity, and inclusion his entire career.

AAPI first lady, Kathy Sisolak, attended the inaugural meeting and thanked Commissioner Tick Segerblom on behalf of the governor and her for reviving the commission, which the Legislature first established in 1995.

original bill— pitched by then-state Sen. Tick Segerblom — sought to eradicate Columbus Day on the second Monday in October and replace it with Indigenous Peoples Day. That bill Tick fought tirelessly for marijuana legalization as a path towards racial equity in Nevada.

Clark County Commissioner Tick Segerblom, the patron saint of marijuana establishments, told a gathering of the Las Vegas Medical Marijuana Association in King's honor to look forward to mass expungement of misdemeanor offenses and a case-by-case effort to eliminate felonies.

Having co-authored the agreement that allowed the Las Vegas Paiutes into Nevada's cannabis industry, Segerblom (the rare politician with a pot strain named after him), took solace in their success. "The marijuana industry is dominated by white people, but along comes this tribe and just takes over. Of all the things I've done, this is the one I'm most excited about."

As NV Dems Chair, Tick will continue this commitment, uplifting the voices of Nevada's diverse communities and ensuring the Nevada State Democratic Party reflects the diversity that makes our state great.

Tick works for the working people of Nevada. As a former Chair of the NSDP, State Assemblyman, Senator and now Commissioner, Tick knows how to achieve progressive victories while building a united party. Tick has spent his career investing in the NSDP and the working people of Nevada. That is why he is the best candidate to build and unite our party, leading us to victory in 2022 and beyond.
