

Rules of the 2024 Nevada State Democratic Convention

Adopted by the Nevada State Democratic Party Executive Board, March 13, 2024

A. Convention Organization

I. State Convention Delegates/Alternates/Attendees

- a. All delegates and alternates to the state convention must be registered Democrats residing in the assembly district they are representing at the convention.
- b. All delegates and alternates must have been elected at their respective Assembly District Delegate Election Meeting.
- c. The Nevada State Democratic Party may solicit a suggested voluntary contribution from attendees to the State Convention on Saturday, May 18, 2024, but under no circumstances shall a contribution be mandatory for participation.

II. Registration

- a. The Credentials Committee shall register delegates, alternates, and convention guests (including members of the press and vendors) during the in-person registration period.
- b. In-person registration for the State Convention shall begin no later than 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 17, 2024, and remain open until 9:00 p.m. on that day. On Saturday, May 18th, 2024 registration shall open no later than 7 a.m. and shall close at 10:00 a.m. on that day. Every delegate and alternate present in line to register at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 18, 2024 shall be registered.
- c. The Credentials Committee may allow for pre-registration for the State Convention, though pre-registering does not exempt the requirement for in-person registration at the convention.
- d. Delegates and alternates who have not pre-registered for the convention shall have until 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 18, 2024 to register in person.
- e. Delegates and alternates who have pre-registered for the convention shall have until 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 18, 2024 for in-person registration.
- f. Any delegate or alternate (regardless of pre-registration status) who has not registered in-person, or is not in the in-person registration line, by 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 18, 2024 shall be considered to have vacated their position.
- g. The Credentials Committee shall create a list of alternates and shall take into consideration, in order: the assembly district represented, congressional district represented, order of the alternate's sign-in, and the alternate's presidential preference.
- h. After 10 a.m., the Credentials Committee shall begin seating alternates in vacant delegate positions based on the assembly district represented, time of the in-person registration of the alternate and the last known presidential preference of the delegate who has not registered. An alternate seated as a delegate shall be a member of the same presidential preference group as the delegate they/them/their is to replace.

- i. If there is an insufficient number of alternates of a particular presidential preference to replace absent delegates of that presidential preference, then those delegate positions shall remain vacant.
- j. The Credentials Committee shall make reasonable efforts to seat the first available alternate based on this list and after such time shall proceed to the next name on the list. The Credentials Committee shall not deviate from the alternate list unless good cause is shown.
- k. Alternates to the convention shall be allowed to attend regardless of voting status.

III. Permanent Officers

- a. The Chair of the Nevada State Democratic Party shall be the Convention Chair, the First Vice Chair of the Nevada State Democratic Party shall be the Convention Vice-Chair, and the Secretary of the Nevada State Democratic Party shall be the Convention Secretary.
- b. The Chair of the Nevada State Democratic Party may appoint other permanent officers for the convention. Such officers shall be Honorary Chair(s), a Parliamentarian, and Sergeant(s) at Arms. The officers appointed by the Chair of the Nevada State Democratic Party shall be ratified by the convention body as a whole. Additionally, the Chair of the Nevada State Democratic Party may appoint additional officers to assist these permanent officers with their duties at their discretion.
- c. The Convention Chair, and the Convention Vice-Chair when acting as the Convention Chair, shall be responsible for presiding over the state convention until adjournment and shall be the presiding officer. The Convention Chair shall have all powers included in this document. In particular, the Convention Chair may recognize speakers and motions as consistent with parliamentary authority at their discretion and may limit debate to a certain number of speakers on either side of an issue as well as the time for each speaker.
- d. The Secretary shall be responsible for recording the minutes of the State Convention and shall assist the Convention Chair as requested.
- e. The Parliamentarian shall be the arbiter of any parliamentary questions or interpretations.
- f. The Sergeant(s) at Arms shall ensure order and decorum on the convention floor.

IV. Parliamentary Authority

- a. The 2024 Democratic State Convention shall be governed in the following order of authority: The Charter and The Bylaws of the Democratic Party of the United States, the Nevada Delegate Selection Plan for the 2024 Democratic National Convention, the Charter and Bylaws of the Nevada State Democratic Party, the Rules of the 2024 Nevada State Democratic Convention, and the most current (12th) edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

V. Decorum

- a. All delegates, alternates, and guests are entitled to attend and participate in the convention free of harassment or intimidation. Anyone harassing or attempting to intimidate any delegate, alternate, or guest to the convention shall be ejected from the convention immediately and shall forfeit any fees paid for the convention or other convention activities.
- b. Any intentional disruption of any convention activities may result in immediate ejection from the convention, including the forfeiture of any fees paid for the convention or other convention activities.
- c. Guests invited to speak to the convention shall not have their remarks or presentations interrupted or interfered with in any manner, including auditory or visual distractions from the floor. Violation of this rule may result in immediate ejection from the convention, including the forfeiture of any fees paid for the convention or other convention activities.
- d. Noisemakers of any kind are prohibited at the convention.
- e. Conversation on the floor should be kept to a minimum out of respect for guests, delegates and speakers. Those delegates, alternates, and guests wishing to converse should exit the floor.
- f. The Sergeant(s) at Arms shall have the authority to enforce these rules with the approval of the Convention Chair.

VI. Discussion and Voting

- a. Only delegates may propose, discuss, and vote on matters before the convention.
- b. Non-voting attendees shall be seated in a designated area to aid in the smooth process of voting on convention business.
- c. There shall be no proxy voting at the convention.
- d. All votes taken at the State Convention shall be by voice vote unless otherwise noted.
- e. If the Convention Chair is unable to determine the outcome of a voice vote, a vote of standing division shall be taken.
- f. Unless otherwise directed by the Convention Chair, debate shall be limited to a maximum of three (3) delegates for and three (3) against any particular motion to a minimum of one (1) delegate for or against any particular motion.
- g. The time limit for each delegate to speak shall be three (3) minutes.
- h. The Convention Chair may extend this time or the number of speakers at their sole discretion.

VII. Call to order, Agenda, and Rules

- a. The State Convention shall be called to order at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 18, 2024.
- b. The agenda and speaking schedule shall be set by the Chair of the Nevada State Democratic Party, subject to these convention rules and the Nevada Delegate Selection Plan for the 2024 Democratic National Convention.

- c. Once approved by the Executive Board of the Nevada State Democratic Party prior to the convention, these rules shall serve as the temporary rules of the convention until convention rules are permanently adopted by a majority vote of convention delegates.
- d. Any motion to amend the Convention Agenda, the Temporary Convention Rules, or the Convention Rules shall require either a privileged resolution from the Rules and Bylaws Committee of the Nevada State Democratic Party or a petition signed by thirty percent (30%) of all convention delegates.
- e. Motions to amend the Convention Agenda, the Temporary Convention Rules, or the Convention Rules shall only be adopted upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all delegates.

VIII. Credentials Committee and Quorum

- a. The Credentials Committee shall be appointed by the Chair of the Nevada State Democratic Party prior to the Convention.
- b. The Credentials Committee shall administer registration for the convention.
- c. All disputes over credentials or the credentialing process shall be heard by the Credentials Committee.
- d. Each registered delegate, alternate, and guest shall receive a credential from the Credentials Committee and shall wear the credential in full view during all sessions of the Convention.
- e. The Credentials Committee shall have the responsibility of determining the attendance of delegates, alternates, and guests to the Convention and the number of delegates awarded to each preference group pursuant to the Nevada Delegate Selection Plan for the 2024 Democratic National Convention.
- f. The Convention Chair shall recognize the Chair or Co-Chair of the Credentials Committee for reports on the attendance of delegates, alternates, and guests to the Convention and the size of each preference group.
- g. Forty percent (40%) of the registered delegates shall constitute a quorum for the Convention. Once a quorum has been certified, the business of the convention shall not be subject to discussion or amendment.

IX. Consent Agenda

- a. There may be a consent agenda for this convention. Items may be placed on the consent agenda by the Chair of the Nevada State Democratic Party or upon majority vote of the Executive Board.
- b. All items on the consent agenda shall identify who placed the item on the consent agenda.
- c. The consent agenda shall be raised after the appointment of permanent convention officers.
- d. The consent agenda shall be adopted upon a majority vote of convention delegates. If the consent agenda fails to pass, each item on the consent agenda shall be voted on individually at a time to be determined by the Convention Chair. Such items shall be adopted if approved by majority vote.

X. Electors to the Electoral College

- a. Nominees for Nevada's six (6) members to the Electoral College shall file nomination forms no later than 30 minutes after the adoption of the credentials report.
- b. Each congressional district caucus will elect one (1) elector by a majority vote of all delegates present and voting from their respective district.
- c. The State Convention will elect two (2) electors by a majority vote of all delegates present and voting.
- d. The list of electors will be submitted to the Nevada Secretary of State by the State Party Chair within three (3) days of their election on May 18, 2024.

XI. Platform

- a. The Platform Committee shall be appointed by the Chair of the Nevada State Democratic Party prior to the Convention.
- b. The Platform Committee shall meet and propose a platform to the Convention.
- c. The platform, as proposed by the Platform committee, shall be made available in electronic format, and to the extent practicable, made available in written form for review by the Convention delegates prior to any vote.
- d. The platform, as proposed by the Platform Committee, shall be voted upon as a whole. The platform shall be adopted, if approved, by a majority vote.
- e. Should the platform fail to achieve a majority vote, the Convention Chair shall call for a vote on each section in the platform. Each section that is approved by a majority vote shall be adopted.
- f. Any proposed amendments or additions to the platform must be made to the platform committee before they may be brought to the floor of the convention.
- g. An amendment rejected by the platform committee shall only be brought to the floor for a vote with the signatures of thirty percent (30%) of all convention delegates. Challenges to signatures shall be heard by the Credentials Committee.
- h. Amendments shall be limited to five (5) minutes of debate, with the Permanent Chair allowed to extend that debate by another five (5) minutes at their sole discretion. Any time extensions beyond the first five-minute extension shall be in ten (10) minute increments at the discretion of the convention body and shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present and voting.

XII. Presidential Preference Alignment

- a. The results of the February 6, 2024 state presidential preference primary shall be binding on delegates to the convention.
- b. Delegates to the state convention shall be considered to have aligned with a presidential preference group when they are registered for the convention. A delegate shall be required to designate their presidential preference at the time of their registration. A delegate who refuses to designate a preference group shall be registered by the Credentials Committee as uncommitted.
- c. The Credentials Committee shall have responsibility of determining the number of delegates within each preference group, and shall upon completion of registration, present a final registration report to the convention of the size of each preference group.
